

JAMES D. CULLEN

jcullen@rcfp.com

401.521.7000 x2220

Direct 401.278.2220

PRACTICE SUMMARY

James conducts legal research and writing and assists the firm's shareholders during various stages of the litigation process. He regularly appears before the Rhode Island Superior Court on behalf of the firm's clients presenting oral argument on discovery and dispositive motions.

James also has appellate experience, having been involved with researching and drafting a number of briefs for matters before the Rhode Island Supreme Court and the First Circuit Court of Appeals.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Researched and co-authored memorandum of law regarding the scope of discovery in a ground breaking class action before the Rhode Island Superior Court related to medical devices involving over seventy defendants.
- Assisted in drafting amicus curiae brief to the Rhode Island Supreme Court regarding unauthorized practice of law.

PRACTICES

Professional Malpractice Defense
Commercial Litigation
Labor & Employment

EDUCATION

University of Chicago Law School, LLM (2010)
Trinity College, Dublin School of Law, LL.B. first class honors (2008)

BAR ADMISSIONS

Rhode Island, 2010
Massachusetts, 2011
New York, 2012

PROFESSIONAL & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Year Up, Mentor
Rhode Island Bar Association